Hancock, of Henderson, and orator of surgery, George Hendon, of Louisville. Lexington is the next meeting place.

In his speech Dr. McCracken said a number of men in political and professional life in Kentucky had urged the state board of health to demand prosecutions for criminal operations. He urged a strong stand against them.

Obstructing Registration. Lexington, Ky., Oct. 21. (Special.)—Sixty-five indictments were returned for obstructing registration. C. W. Longmire, a guard at the penitentiary, and Assistant Fire Chief Shryock are among them.

REOPENED

MISS WINSTON'S ROOM AT THE FRANKLIN BUILDING.

Next Monday the room of Miss Clara Winston at the Franklin building will be re-opened at the order of the board of health to keep the room closed for three weeks owing to the fact that the diphtheria were well exposed. Miss Winston has recovered from her illness and will resume her classes. Some physicians contend that she was not ill of diphtheria, but had only a severe case of tonsillitis, but in order to be safe the room was ordered closed. The two rooms in the Washington school have not been opened. The situation in the county is growing better and today classes were resumed in the school at Grahamville.

Roosevelt Meets Governor. Nashville, Oct. 21. Roosevelt returned here today to begin preparations for his trip into the Ozark country. Roosevelt had unexpected pleasures today in a visit from Sir Percy Greyhound, now governor of British East Africa, spent more than an hour together. Then the governor resumed his journey to Uganda.

Circuit Judge Reed Declines to Grant Injunction to Keep Graves' Name Off the Democratic Ticket

It is Believed Ragsdale and Barry Will Appeal to Higher Court—Copy for Ballot in Hands of Printer.

Circuit Judge William Reed this morning refused to grant the temporary restraining order to prevent the name of Eugene Graves, Democratic nominee for representative, being placed under the Democratic device. The suit applying for the temporary order was filed yesterday afternoon and a similar suit will be filed in the case of W. V. Eaton, Democratic nominee for state senator. A consultation will be held this afternoon and it is probable that the appeal from the decision of Judge Reed will be taken before the appellate court immediately. Judge Reed's decision was brief, and merely stated that he had read the petition carefully and after reading the law refused to grant the order.

So far as placing Mr. J. S. Ragsdale and E. Barry under the Democratic device, County Court Clerk E. G. Boone has ignored the petition filed with him. The names have been ordered placed on the ballots under a suitable device, and now in the appellate court the attempt will be made to have their names placed under the Democratic "rooster." Copy for the ballots is in the hands of the printer, who has begun work of setting the type and preparing to print the ballots.

The ground of action is that the Democratic committee who called the primary and convention canvassed the returns were not properly sworn and violated the whole procedure.

In case the contestants win their names can be placed on the ballots with stickers. If they lose they can go on as independents.

The Petition.

The petition sets forth the ground as follows: The Democratic legislative committee of and for the Fourth legislative district of Kentucky was and has been at all times the 11th day of June, 1909 composed of the city Democratic committee of the city of Paducah, Kentucky (which is a city of the second class) and the county Democratic committee of McCracken county, residing outside the city of Paducah, Kentucky, each of said committee to be sworn in as such committee to faithfully discharge their respective duties as such committee, and the two committees to be organized separately as such, each such committee choosing a chairman and secretary and said two committees constituted and composed the legislative committee of said Fourth legislative district, of which committee so constituted, it was the duty and within its power so to do, after first being duly sworn to faithfully perform their duties as such committee, to determine the time and manner of nominating candidates for said office of representative for said Fourth legislative district, and to hold conventions or primary elections for the purpose of selecting or electing a Democratic candidate for

Spanish Cabinet Has Resigned to Alfonso

London, Oct. 21.—Despatches to the Exchange Telegraph from Madrid say the Spanish cabinet has resigned and Alfonso has accepted the ministers' resignations.

The cabinet resigned at the direction of Premier Maura on the express demand of Alfonso. The Moroccan war, the anti-clerical situation and the world-wide protest over the Ferrer execution are the primary causes. The resignation throws Spain in a chaotic condition. Alfonso and his advisers today are trying to find a man who is able to gather the scattered remnants together and save the country. A competent man, willing, is hard to find. The fate of Alfonso and Spain depends on the choice. A liberal head possibly would wreck the country while a Conservative would not have the support of the cortes and the people. Probably he will have to resign Maura. If he does, unprecedented rioting and demonstration by the people is expected, which eventually will cause the overthrow of Alfonso.

Terrorist Victim.

Kiev, Russia, Oct. 21.—Another victim of terrorist vengeance, with his head and his scalp stripped from it, was found in a blood splashed room in a lodging house here today. It is similar to the murder of N. Fergodorof, the revolutionist suspected of being a government spy. Police bloody robbery. Reno, Nev., Oct. 21.—A posse left here today in pursuit of two men who robbed a hotel at Vin-ton last night, killed the bartender and stabbed the proprietor's son, escaping with several thousands. The bartender refused to give them a free drink and they shot him. The men then decided to rob the safe, which was open.

aid office, but this plaintiff says that before said committee could lawfully and according to the rules of the said Democratic party on the laws of this state, to determine the time or manner of nominating candidates, said committee members were each required to be duly and legally sworn and qualified as such committee members, and upon their failure so to do, their acts are invalid and void.

This plaintiff now says that each member of said legislative committee for said Fourth legislative district of Kentucky, consisting of McCracken county, and each precinct committee, man composing said committee, wholly failed to be sworn by any officer authorized by law to administer an oath, and each member of said committee failed to be sworn by any officer authorized by law to administer an oath, to faithfully and honestly discharge his duty as such committee member, but without being so sworn attempted to organize and call a primary election for McCracken county, but said legislative committee wholly failed to make any call for any primary election for the purpose of selecting, electing or choosing a Democratic candidate for said Fourth district, but did attempt and pretend to have ballots prepared to be used by Democratic electors of McCracken county to be voted for candidates for the office of representative, and the name of the defendant, F. E. Graves, was printed upon said ballots, and after said pretended primary election was so illegally called and held, and called and held without any authority of law whatever so to do, said committee likewise assembled again and without being so sworn or sworn at all, and proceeded to count the ballots so cast, and did pretend to act as such committee for said county and as such, did declare the defendant, F. E. Graves, the candidate or nominee of the said Democratic party for said office of representative for said Fourth legislative district, and the said alleged chairman of said committee and secretary did attempt to certify to the defendant, Bill G. Boone, clerk of McCracken county court, that the said defendant, F. E. Graves, was and had been at a primary election elected and selected and chosen as the Democratic candidate for said Fourth legislative district.

Bandits Held Up Posse.

Minocqua, Wis., Oct. 21.—Several new posers were sent out today to search for the five masked robbers, who got $1,000 from the state bank here and then held up the posse pursuing. Nothing is heard of either posse or the bandits yet.

Saw Round-Up.

President Taft rode out on the range and saw a genuine old-fashioned round-up of 1,200 of his brother's cattle at the Rincon ranch. On the side there was some fancy roping of steers by Jidy Tomlinson, of the fast-disappearing class of old-fashioned cowboys. Later the president was in at the branding of some steers and the performance was concluded with the dipping of a score of cattle to show how they are kept vermin free. Altogether the president was given an accurate insight to all the features of modern ranching.

The president rode out to Rincon from La Quinta this afternoon in an automobile, but he had donned his riding togs in advance, and upon his arrival Sam, the big charger that had been secured for him, was trotted out, splendidly equipped in the new saddle presented to the president by the Taft cowboys.

Sam is a husky brute and he showed some tendency to be skittish while the president was trying to mount him, but once Taft was firmly seated in the saddle, Sam's spirit was broken. After that he seemed about as quiet as a carriage horse.

Numbers Go With Him.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Taft, Miss Louise Taft, Joseph E. Green, Mr. Taft's business partner; Henry E. Coger, cashier of the Taft ranch bank; Secretary of War Dickinson, Capt. Butt, Cecil Lyon and others accompanied the president to the round-up, and well up in front were the Misses Oliver, daughters of the herdsman at Rincon, whom the president complimented on their capital horsemanship. The party returned to the big Taft ranch shortly after 6 o'clock.

Secretary Dickinson and Captain Butt bagged forty-five more ducks. Incidentally, belated newspapers have arrived here with rumors that the dismissal of Crane, minister to China, was made to cause dissension in the Taft cabinet. Secretary Dickinson and Secretary MacVeagh, according to the story, have determined to resign as Chicagoans, the treatment accorded to Crane.

Over at the Rincon ranch Secretary Dickinson declined to discuss the matter further than to declare the story absurd. It is known, however, that Judge Dickinson does not think that the dismissal is any of his business. Farther than that, in the Crane matter he developed his plan to permit cabinet officers to run their own departments and hold them responsible for what follows.

And since this, it can be said that Judge Dickinson will not intrude upon the state department's affairs for the very good reason that he would resent any interference by Secretary Knox in war department matters. It can be said that there is absolute harmony so far in the cabinet upon the Crane affair, as well as upon everything else. If Mr. Crane's case had been left to the president he might have given him another chance, but the matter was left entirely in the hands of Secretary Knox, and the president fully approves all that the secretary did. No man is under consideration for the Chinese mission and the matter of an appointment will not be taken up until after the president's return to Washington.

Speeches on Waterways For Corpus Christi.

IS NOW BEING MADE READY.

Gregory, Tex., Oct. 21.—President Taft today is seeing steam plows and harrows on the fields stretching over today's horseback journey. After an early golf game the brothers took an automobile ride from the residence known as La Quinta, to Taft, eight miles distant. Taft is the only town in the vicinity that voted Republican at the election. This evening President Taft will map out an address which he will deliver at Corpus Christi tomorrow, before resuming his eastward journey. Waterways will be the subject. There is great interest in the speech among delegates to the New Orleans waterways convention, as he will make a similar speech there.

The president golfed this morning with Robert Connelly, the Texas champion, who laid out the links of Taft's ranch, Governor Campbell, who with his staff and delegates are on their way to the Corpus Christi inland waterways congress, stopped for breakfast with Taft at Gregory.

Reclamation Scheme.

A gigantic international reclamation scheme was laid before President Taft today. The suggestion in the form of a memorial was brought here by L. E. Bennett, of Mission, Tex. It contemplates the transformation of millions of acres of barren land in the United States and Mexico by damming the Rio Grande river, turning it into an immense irrigation ditch. It will be necessary to secure the co-operation of Mexico. It is said it is possible at a relatively small cost.

Victim of Fatal Charivari Party Dies at Riverside Hospital Here, Following Desperate Operation

John Stone Was Shot at Crutchfield Accidentally by Dearest Friend, During Wedding Celebration.

Suffering from a gunshot wound of 18 hours previous, John Stone, of Crutchfield, Ky., seven miles north of Fulton, was brought here at 7:30 o'clock last night and an hour later underwent an operation at Riverside hospital at his own request, although all chances of recovery were against him. In spite of surgical skill he died at 4 o'clock this morning.

Stone was accidentally shot at Crutchfield Tuesday night by Oscar Seat, his bosom friend, during a charivari at the home of Mrs. James Ferguson, while a large number of friends were celebrating the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gardner. The bullet struck Stone in the back on the left side and plowed through his stomach, making seven punctures of the bowels. Physicians were summoned but were not in favor of an operation, hoping to save him. His condition reaching a crisis, it was decided to bring him to Paducah and he arrived last night accompanied by his mother, brother and several friends. He was taken from the train to the hospital in Nance & Rogers' ambulance.

Dr. Frank Boyd examined him. He told Stone he would die if not operated on, while there was only one chance in a thousand for his recovery by an operation.

Peritonitis had already developed on account of the lack of an operation at the first; but Stone insisted that an operation be performed, and he was taken to the operating room between 8 and 9 o'clock. Soon afterwards he rallied, but gradually weakening he died.

The body was removed to Nance & Rogers' undertaking parlors and shipped to Crutchfield at 9 o'clock this morning, where it will be buried. Seat, who shot Stone, is almost prostrated over the sad affair as Stone was his best friend.

BANK OF ENGLAND RAISES DISCOUNT

TIGHT MONEY IS PREDICTED FOR NEXT TWO MONTHS BY FINANCIERS.

London, Oct. 21.—The Bank of England announced today that the discount rate is increased from 4 to 5 per cent.

New York, Oct. 21.—The increase of the Bank of England discount rate was prophesied yesterday, but only a half per cent was expected. It is believed the real reason is a desire to keep gold in England and not fear of a panic from too much speculation as it was attempted to mislead. This caused values to increase to what experts believe to the top notch. Leading financiers predict that tight money will prevail the next two months, holders being satisfied because of the inflation of their values.

A FRENCH ATTEMPT AT REVENGE AGAINST FATHER.

Aneta, N. D., Oct. 21.—Poses today are hunting two men, who last night attempted to burn to death Kenneth McKenzie, the 12-years-old son of Simon McKenzie, a butcher and leader of the reform association. He was fatally burned while delivering meat for his father. He was met in the park by two men, who threw him to the ground, poured oil from his own lantern over him and ignited it. They then fled and the youth rolled over in the grass and leaped to his feet, screamed and rushed like a meteor to the street. He was rushed to the hospital at Fargo. His father was prominent recently in a fight against liquor. It is believed that was the cause. The father is nearly crazed over the attack.

STORM'S DEAD. Calcutta, Oct. 21.—Refugees from the storm swept territory of eastern Bengal, arriving today, describe the terrible disaster. Only a few were able to reach here exhausted. It is estimated from their accounts that 5,000 or 10,000 perished in the tornado. Scores of bodies are floating down the Ganges to the sea. Every river in the storm zone is filled with bodies swept by floods from rains accompanying the storms. Even an approximate number of the dead never will be known.

POSSE SURROUNDS BAND OF ROBBERS

FIGHT IN WOODS OF WISCONSIN BUT NO ONE IS KILLED.

Minocqua, Wis., Oct. 21.—Surrounded in the wood near Hazelhurst by a posse of 40 armed men headed by Chief of Police Joseph Loughlin, five masked robbers, who got $3,000 by blowing the safe of the state bank here, exchanged 30 shots with their pursuers. None of the posse was hit. It is believed one robber, who was seen to plunge forward, was shot, but was dragged into the underbrush by his comrades. The last message says the posse is closing in and a fight is inevitable.

Debate Between Candidates at Massac.

SINGLETON ONE OF THE BOYS

Dravling inclement weather and muddy roads a large audience gathered at the Massac school house last night for the purpose of learning the facts about the court house machine that has gobbled up county taxes and spent the money recklessly. The people of the vicinity, although strongly Democratic, were out in full force, and the debate between Thomas N. Hazell and Alben W. Barkley, candidates for county judge, proved interesting. The audience gave Mr. Hazell rapid attention, and were rewarded with jokes and puns by Mr. Barkley.

Col. Gus G. Singleton, who accompanies Mr. Barkley on every trip, did not seek the front of the audience, but found him a seat in the rear of the school, where a crowd of young fellows around him kept a continual stir during the speech of Mr. Hazell, but received the signal to be quiet when Mr. Barkley mounted the rostrum. The noise became so disagreeable that a citizen rebuked the boys for the disturbance, but it never broke up the meeting as the voters in the house strained their ears to catch the facts of the gang that has spent money so lavishly.

Mr. Hazell analyzed the reduction of taxes by the present administration and he pointed out the increase in values by the board of supervisors, and he asked the taxpayers to compare their tax receipts for the last four years and see if taxes had been reduced. Murmurs swept over the audience, and it was plain that the deceit of the gang had been shown up in its true light.

In his reply Mr. Barkley criticised Mr. Hazell for not reading his affidavit about the bridge graft, but he wisely kept off the affidavit, and referred to it only in a sarcastic manner. Mr. Hazell said he intended to use it, but his time was up before he realized it. He will show it tonight.

Chief James Collins stole away quietly to Cairo yesterday and returned last night with Wesley, alias "Pimp" Pembleton, colored, wanted here on a robbery charge. In police court this morning Pembleton's case, the only one on the docket, was continued until Saturday in order that he could summon witnesses and get an attorney. Pembleton pleaded not guilty and asked for a trial. He is charged with robbing Geo. Boyd, colored, of $1.50 several months ago in a pool room. Pembleton says he won the money on a bank shot.

QUAKER CREATES A PERMANENT CURE.

IF YOU DOUBT IT, READ THIS STATEMENT, MADE TO FISHER BY MR. WILLIS MORGAN, OF PADUCAH.

There are a number of remedies on the market today which give a temporary relief, and if they are not used almost continuously, will not benefit at all. Do not chase Quaker Extract and Oil of Balm with any of those. When these wonderful remedies have effected a cure there are no recurrences of any of the symptoms of the disease cured.

Mr. Willis Morgan, one of Paducah's best known citizens, who now resides at 1205 Tennessee street, bought a treatment of Quaker Herb medicine eleven years ago, at which time he was suffering with as bad a case of catarrh as could be found anywhere. He was unable to find any relief from anything he could get for his ailment. His condition was becoming serious, and he had about given up hopes of being even temporarily benefited. Here's what he says today: "After having used everything that anybody would recommend for my case of catarrh, and receiving no benefit at all, I had become so skeptical that I swore I wouldn't take another advertised remedy. When the Quaker Herb medicine was being sold here 11 years ago, I read all the reports of its cures, and doubted that it could be so. At just about the last minute I was finally prevailed upon to try the medicine, and bought a full course of treatment. I used it according to directions, and was completely cured. When I saw what it did for me I got a treatment for my son, who was also ailing with catarrh, and he too received a cure. I have never since had the slightest symptoms of a recurrence of that disease, neither has my son. You can't show me anything to equal the Quaker remedy for catarrh. It is my salvation."

The Quaker Extract is also a cure for rheumatism, kidney, liver, stomach and blood troubles. Fisher, the Quaker Health Teacher, is here to prove its wonderful curative powers to you. Come and talk to him. He can be seen at McPherson's drug store, corner Fourth and Broadway, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. daily. Quaker Herb Extract is $1.00, 6 for $5.00. Oil of Balm (Inhalant) 25c. By prepaid express, on receipt of price.

CANNON SCATHES FOES TO MAYORS

READS LA FOLLETTE AND CUMMINS OUT OF PARTY.

Defends New Payne Tariff Law as Best Ever Passed Upon Statute Books.

CALLS MR. BRYAN "TWO-FACED"

Elgin, Ill., Oct. 21.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon opened fire on the Republican insurgents in an address before the Illinois Mayors' association at the Elgin opera house.

Senator Cummins, of Iowa, and Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, and their followers practically were read out of the party. Speaker Cannon defended himself against the charges of czar rule and branded as false the report that six of the Illinois representatives will join the revolt against him. Vigorous denial was made of the assertion that his election as speaker was brought about through a deal with Tammany. W. J. Bryan was dealt with in blistering terms and was declared to be two-faced in his attitude on the house rules.

Why Fowler Was Dropped. Representative Fowler, of New Jersey, who recently attacked the speaker, came in for incidental mention. Mr. Fowler's refusal to report to the house the emergency currency measure was given by intimation as the reason for dropping him as chairman of the currency and banking committee.

The new tariff act was characterized as the best ever passed in the history of the country. Speaker Cannon spoke for nearly two hours, devoting his entire time to subjects relating to congress. More than 1,200 people were in the audience.

Cummins as Bryan Aid? "I was over in Iowa last week and found that it is an open secret there that Senator Cummins not only proposed to join hands with Bryan, but he says the agitation will not stop and he will appeal to the people until the tariff is revised according to his notion," said Speaker Cannon. "It is well known that Senator Cummins is out to defeat every member of congress in Iowa who voted for the bill."

"In this campaign to be waged by Senator Cummins, the issue appears to be whether the seven senators and twenty members of the house who voted against the tariff bill constitute the Republican party or whether the majority of Republican members of congress and the president signed the bill made up the Republican party."

"These people under the leadership of Senator Cummins and Senator La Follette call themselves Republicans, but if they are then I am something else."

Defends Tariff Bill. "The Payne tariff bill did suit me in every respect, but a majority of the members in the house were in favor of it and I bowed to their will in the points where I thought it might have been improved. As President Taft said at Winona, it was the best tariff bill from a protective or any other standpoint that has ever been enacted in the history of the Republican party."

"You can't make a revenue bill except by compromise. People say a thing could be settled on its merits, and not by compromise or log-rolling. Maybe that is so, but it never will be so until Jehovah Himself changes the make-up of the human animal or Himself takes command of all legislation."

Takes Rap at Bryan. "After the McKinley bill was passed our Democratic friends went to the country and said it was a bad bill, and they denounced Speaker Thomas B. Reed as a czar. Well, we lost the house as a result and a Democratic speaker was elected. What did the Democrats do but turn around and adopt the so-called Reed rules. "William J. Bryan was elected to congress at that time, and he voted on two occasions for the Reed rules. And yet we find him in 1908 shouting that the house of representatives has ceased to be a legislative body and that Cannon is a czar."

"Now Mr. Bryan is coming forward and denouncing the Payne tariff bill as a fraud, and he frankly admits that he has no hope of securing a revision at the next session."

AN UP-TO-DATE DRUGGIST says it is surprising how many old-fashioned remedies are being used, which goes to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old, time-tried remedies. For instance, for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy, nothing equalling our grandmothers' "sage tea" has ever been discovered. Although, by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew has been made more effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer. Nowadays when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or forest for herbs and making the "tea" ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert.

TERRIBLE INDIGESTION

W. J. Gilbert Has a Remedy That He Guarantees to Promptly Relieve All Stomach Distress.

People go on suffering from little stomach troubles for years and imagine they have a serious disease. They over eat or over drink and force on the stomach a lot of extra work.

But they never think that the stomach needs extra help to do extra work.

If these people would take a Mi-on-na tablet with or after meals it would be a great big help to the stomach in its strain of overwork.

No matter what you eat or drink Mi-on-na tablets will sweeten your sour stomach and stop gas belching in 5 minutes. The heaviness disappears and the stomach is greatly aided in its work of digestion.

And Mi-on-na not only promptly relieves all distress but if taken regularly will absolutely cure indigestion by building up the flabby overworked walls of the stomach and making them strong enough to digest the most hearty meal. W. J. Gilbert sells and guarantees Mi-on-na. The price is 50 cents a large box. Leading druggists everywhere sell Mi-on-na. Test sample free from Booth's Mi-on-na, Buffalo, N. Y.

"Any man who is ever speaker of the house will be elected by a majority and there will always be a minority. When elected if he does not exercise his duties in harmony with the majority and if he does not become the servant of that majority and stand firm and without fear you can write on his forehead coward and poltroon."

In referring to the report that Illinois congressmen are about to join in the revolt against him, Speaker Cannon read the list of Illinois members and their committee assignments and declared they were better favored than most state delegations.

"I know all my colleagues from Illinois," said Speaker Cannon, "and I do not believe there is one man among them who would take such a stand as is reported and refuse to have his name given."

Elgin Extends Welcome. At the opening session of the association in the afternoon the address of welcome was made by Mayor Albert Fehrmann, of Elgin. Mayor W. A. Pannock, of La Salle, responded.

Mayor E. S. McDonald, of Decatur, president of the association, delivered his annual address, in which he sounded a war cry against immoral dives. He declared these "hell holes" must be driven from Illinois cities.

"If a man wants to take a drink that is his business," said Mayor McDonald. "But society must rid itself of the dives which tear down humanity and stop the progress of municipal affairs. There are many Waymans who are working to destroy these 'hell holes.'"

News of Theatres

Beulah Poynter.

Messrs. Bart, Nicolai and Nixon announce an early engagement of Beulah Poynter in her new original play, "The Swamp Girl," at the Kentucky theater in this city. This play Miss Poynter is using alternately with her famous success, "Leona Rivers." For three seasons it has served her as a most excellent starring vehicle, and she has a record of nearly two thousand performances behind her. Miss Poynter is a young woman of the class who believes that things are accomplished by hard work only, and instead of resting all summer as she could well afford to do, she headed her own stock company in St. Louis, Mo., and gave productions of "The Girl of the Golden West," "The Road to Yesterday," "The Man on the Box," and a number of other recent Broadway successes, that were highly complimented by both press and public. Her new play is described as a most powerful lesson to girls and women on the bitterness of sin. The story is as novel as it is interesting. This truly is a play that every woman should see and ponder over.

The Bar Stuster Coming.

Among the shows that are booked to appear at the Kentucky theater is "The Bar Stuster," which will come on November 8 for one night. This play is on the order of "The Wolf" and was written by M. W. Bennett. The play deals with the life of the for north in the summer of 1878. There is a beautiful love story between a young New Yorker with money and a half breed. Mr. Blaine A. Darnold, is seen as the lover, Miss Dorothy McVillie as the "Girl," and Robert McIntyre as the trader and slinster. The company carries all special scenery and lover of good, clean, wholesome drama, should not miss this great play.

WRIGHTS SPOIL ONE MAN'S SNAP

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEE BUSY, NEVER WORRIED BEFORE.

Examiner of Aeronautic Patents at Washington Is Rushed Day and Night.

MONOPOLY IS NOW POSSIBLE

Washington, Oct. 21. (United Press)—Until about a year ago there was one man in the United States patent office who had a soft snap. He was the examiner in charge of aeronautical patents; and it was only once or twice a twelvemonth that he had a chance to scan applications for patent rights on flying machines.

Now, he is the busiest man in the whole office. He has three clerks helping him, and has petitioned the powers-that-be for a couple more. His present troubles are due to the recent tremendous influx of applications for patents for aeroplanes, dirigibles and other craft. There was a mild acceleration of business last fall when Orville Wright did stunts at Fort Myer in his aeroplanes; then things looked up a bit when Brother Wilbur cut aerial capers over foreign soil. But business went with a rush after the first few across the English channel and Glenn Curtiss pulled down the world's championship at Rheims.

From Germany, France, England, Italy and several other foreign nations have come dozens of applications for patent rights on flying machines. Naturally American inventors lead in the number of applicants, and they have simply overwhelmed the patent office with their demands for protection.

Many patent attorneys here believe that the two Dayton aeroplanists, Wilbur and Orville Wright, have the entire field all to themselves, so far as patent rights go. It is the opinion of those who have looked carefully into the matter that the Ohio boys hold exclusive rights under one of the broadest patents ever granted by the department—one that may mean their control of every aeroplane, whether a bi-plane or monoplane—turned out in America.

It is the announced policy of the patent office to grant the widest possible rights to an inventor who is a pioneer in his particular field. Undoubtedly the Wright biplane, on which a patent was granted on May 22, 1906, was the very first aeroplane which could navigate the air. More than that, the specifications of this patent cover the famous "warping" device of the Dayton brothers' machines so thoroughly that it is doubtful if any other machine which must necessarily use this device to a greater or less extent, could legally be manufactured in America without liability of the manufacturer for infringement of the Wright patent.

In brief, there is a very real possibility of the Wright brothers having a monopoly of the business of building and selling aeroplanes in this country. The decision of the courts in the brothers' present suit against Glenn H. Curtiss for infringement, may settle the whole question.

The Wrights are suing Curtiss for infringement of their "warping" device. On the Wright aeroplane the tips of both the main planes are susceptible to movement vertically—each side independent of the other. It is this "warping" that helps maintain stability, and is the very basic principle of aerial navigation in heavier-than-air machines.

The Curtiss machine has rigid main planes, which do not warp. However, to maintain the equilibrium which the Wright biplane secures through the warping scheme, the Hammondport aviator fixed a small plane at either end of his main planes, lying horizontally and parallel to them, but capable of being moved vertically up and down.

The Wrights claim this is an infringement of their warping patent.

and have already asked for an injunction against Curtiss and will eventually have the courts settle the question. The section of the specifications of the Wright machine which embodies the "warping" principle is skillfully written. It doesn't state that the two main planes shall be the ones to be warped, but speaks of "a normally flat aeroplane having lateral marginal portions capable of movement to different positions above or below the normal plane of the body."

Competent patent attorneys incline to the opinion that this pretty nearly shuts out all near-warping devices, whether attached to the main planes or not. And an aeroplane without some such device is like a ship without a rudder—only more so.

CONSERVATION MEN TO MEET

WILL BE SAME TIME AS LAKES-TO-GULF CONVENTION.

Leaders in Movement Will Take First Important Step in Putting the Principle Into Effect.

THIS IS THE TIME FOR ACTION

Washington, Oct. 21.—Believing the time and come for definite action toward the conservation of natural resources, leaders in this movement from all parts of the country will gather at New Orleans November 1 to take the first important steps toward putting the principles of conservation into effect.

The occasion will be a conference between the governors and chairmen of the conservation commissions of 14 southern states, National Forester Pinchot, Chairman White, of the executive committee of the National Conservation Congress and others. The Lakes-to-the-Gulf Waterway association will be in session in New Orleans at the same time.

"In the judgment of many," said Pinchot, "improvement of the inland waterways is one of the most vital problems relating to the conservation of natural resources. Any comprehensive plan for waterway improvement, even though primarily for navigation, must consider the use of water for irrigation, water power and domestic supply. Lasting waterway improvement depends largely on the conservation of forests to protect the headwaters and prevent erosion. As Roosevelt said of the conservation movement, 'there is no other question of equal gravity now before the nation.'"

It is the after effect of experience that counts.

SATIRE FOR THE CRITICS

PHARISEES AND SCRIBES ARE NOT ALL DEAD.

Evangelist Gipsy Smith compares the Way Jesus Did—Says Little of Lovee Vain.

ALL OF THEM AVOID SINNER.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—At the Seventh regiment armory Gipsy Smith preached a sermon that was filled with satire aimed at the people who had criticized his action in leading a parade through the Twenty-second street "red light" district.

Only once did he directly refer to the demonstration, and that was when he read messages he had received of good done among the denizens of the levee. His sermon itself never touched the subject, but throughout it contained passages that could have but one interpretation. It told of Christ's great love and of His seeking after sinners, not avoiding them. The sermon swayed the vast audience, and when a call was made for all who wished to surrender to Christ to rise about 250 people stood.

Before the start of the sermon, H. P. Crowell, chairman of the Laymen's Evangelistic Council, which is promoting the revival, climbed into the pulpit and lauded Gipsy for holding the Monday night parade. "I entered the parade with mingled feelings," he said, "but now that I have seen the good it accomplished I thank God that He created and developed such a man as Gipsy Smith."

Wish to Hear Gipsy. Then the Roman evangelist entered the pulpit. I have here a message that was handed me after coming on the platform," he said. "It is from W. E. Hopkins, of the Midnight Mission, and he says: 'Eight workers, among the sinners in the red light district, placed in the hands of nearly every girl in the district, last night, tickets to your sermon at the Alhambra, with an invitation to attend. Few reports refused them permission and the women responded heartily with few exceptions, sending this message: "Thank Gipsy Smith for remembering us and say we would like to hear him."'

Gipsy's first text told of how Christ drew the sinners and publicans to him and of how the pharisees and scribes had murmured at his actions. "The pharisees and scribes are not all dead yet; some of their grandchildren are living in Chicago," he said. Then he took for his other text the story of the prodigal son, but he called it "The story of the broken-hearted father watching for his son's return." "God is the Father, and He watches for the return of the world," he said.

Then the evangelist told the story of the lost sheep. "The world cares more for a little piece of property than a lost soul. It cares more for a sheep than a fallen woman. But Jesus talked and ate with sinners. I'm not surprised that some took exception to it. Some do today. Nobody wants anything to do with a sinner. When we have to touch them we do so with a kid glove touch, the very brush of our finger tips freezing them off."

For Young People Only. Announcement was made during the meeting of a young people's meeting that is to be held Saturday afternoon, and the evangelist created amusement by asking that hymn books not paid for be left in the seats.

"It is easy to carry them off without thinking," he said, "for my wife did so this afternoon. But bring them back to prove your good faith." Gipsy Smith held his first meeting in Oak park yesterday in the First Congregational church. He implored his audience to lead a "Sunday life" every day in the week. He asked all those who wanted him to pray for them to rise and twelve arose. He closed the meeting with a prayer for Oak park.

Indian School Wrecked. Rapid City, S. D., Oct. 20.—By the explosion of a boiler at the United States Indian school yesterday, one student was killed, and another so terribly scalded that physicians despair of saving his eyesight. The boiler is located in the basement of the Berla building. When it exploded, it shot up through the ceiling, under the floor of the dining room, continuing into the Berla dormitory, where it stopped. Adolph Russell, 10 years old, from Pine Ridge reservation, was instantly killed. Roland Whitewater, of the same reservation, was frightfully scalded. If it had occurred an hour later, the dining room would have been filled with 250 boys and girls, who are students.

"What do you most admire about Hamlet?" said one actor. "The fact," said the other, "that he didn't employ assistants to prove that he had a brain storm or some sort of dementia."—Washington Star.

Daily Thought.

'Sometimes the best way to say it is the right thing at the right time is by keepin' perfectly still.'

If the same material is used in the Perkins' creek and Clark's river bridges, that cements the county machine together, Mr. Barkley was right in considering a maintenance bond superfluous.

Indeterminate franchises in Ohio,

under a ruling of the supreme court, are not in perpetuity, and unless the words "in perpetuity" are inserted in franchises hereafter they are deter-minate and can be abrogated by the public. That spells the end of the perpetual franchise in, at least, one state.

The action of President Harahan

in adopting his granddaughter,

Theodore Shirley, and conferring on her his family name, after her mother's divorce, reminds one of a song, which might be parodied: "H-A-R-

A-H-A-N spells Harahan. It's a name that no shame ever has been con-connected with." And by why, what prouder claim than the boast George

Cohan puts in the mouth of his famous Irish character?

"Proud of all the Irish blood that's in me;

"Divil a man can say a word agin me."

We're all Irish more or less. Most of us more.

MR. OLIPIANT'S COUP.

According to the News-Democrat

the arrival of Mr. Oliphant at the Milan school house Tuesday night

tofor given; but McCracken county pays by far the most of the salary, and Marshall county proportionately little. The increase in salary comes off McCracken county instead of Marshall. The injustice lies in the fact that McCracken county gets no more of the court's services than formerly, and while Marshall county has been getting from the court all it pays for—efficient of the court's time to dispose of its docket—McCracken county's legal business entitles it to a continuous session.

This county should be a separate district. Prisoners as well as the public are entitled to speedy trials.
Hiram Smedley, for instance, was kept in jail for months, because court was not in session, and then was sent to an asylum. Louis Futrell killed a man and was imprisoned without bail last spring. He was not tried until September and then was admitted to bail. During that time those men, presumed to be innocent according to law, were held as felons, and the taxpayers of McCracken county were compelled to pay for their keeping.

We do not begrudge the circuit judge his increased salary. The duties of the office warrant it; but we do think there should have been some corresponding benefit accruing to the citizens of the county, who so cheerfully pay the increase. They do not expect to get any better service from the court, for it will have the same judge and the suggestion would be a reflection on him. They cannot expect to secure any more attention to their civil matters and criminal cases, for Marshall county retains its claim upon the court's time.

The next legislature should be impressed with the importance of making McCracken county a separate circuit judicial district. The county bar should attend to that. It would cost the county little, if any more, because this county supports the court, anyway.

THE PUBLIC FORUM.

ENTERING HARVARD AT ELEVEN.

The admission of eleven-year-old William James Sidus to Harvard University has aroused interest and comment the world over. This boy is not a freak nor a phenomenon. He is the result of an experiment by which his father, Prof. Horus Sidus, of Brookline, Mass., has sought to prove some of his theories. Prof. Sidus is a psychologist—that is, he is a student and expert on the human mind.

Sidus had a theory of "latent energy" of the mind. He believed that just as the athlete has a "second wind," and just as the body reacts under severe strain, permitting new and extraordinary exertion, so the human brain is capable, if called upon to do so, to rise to almost any task and test. And this not only without harm, but with actual benefit to the mind.

Sidus believes that there are two great faults with our school system.
First, education is not begun early enough; and second, that children are "taught" rather than "educated."

To "teach" is to cram a fact or a definition or date or the name of a letter or the word cast into a baby's brain. To "educate" is to permit and encourage the child-brain to learn automatically by encouraging the reasoning powers. This sounds a little dense, but perhaps we can make it plain. Sidus took his baby boy in hand when he was less than two years old. He started three separate lines of development. First was taught a love of play and physical exertion; then Mrs. Sidus was assigned the duty of giving the child a full normal dose of Mother Goose, fairies tales and all the babble and nursery days. The father, then, each day sought not to teach the child anything, but to lead him to discover for himself some fact and the relation of that fact to other facts.

The first course gave the child a sturdy body and made him a lover of outdoors and an expert in all childish games. The second course kept him a "baby" and "stimulated his imagination." The third gave him facility in handling that most wonderful of all tools—the reasoning brain.

Never in his life has he been told, in answer to a question, that he "couldn't understand." Never has he been told a thing is true "because father says so." Never has he been given a false or slovenly answer in reply to his childish questions. Each time the little mind reached out—whether to ask, "How big is the sun?"
or "Why does the kitty have a tail?"
a careful, truthful answer has been given. Sidus found that the "foolish questions" which his boy asked were the same that all children asked, but he saw in them the groping of the awakening mind, and sought to give them direction, purpose and relation.

The result was that the child, not being held down to the alphabet,
"learning to count ten" and a few vague and unrelated facts about the things he saw about him, was as easily interested in history as he was in Mother Goose. He didn't "learn to count ten," but he learned by playing dominoes, the relation of numbers (not figures), and his mind was permitted to discover for itself that two plus two makes four.

Mrs. Naggs—John, have you read this magazine article entitled "How to Be Happy, Though Married?" Naggs—Of course not. I know how without reading it. Mrs. Naggs—Well, how? Naggs—Get a divorce.

The great system of roadways now proposed is planned to make that wonderful region one of the most attractive in all the world.—Manufacturers' Record.

FOURISHING AS MEAT

The time-worn argument that a meat diet is essential to strength and vigor has received a hard knock in the form of America's great wheat food, Faust Brand Spaghetti.

For here is a food as nourishing as meat—cheaper than meat—cleaner than meat—that produces more energy with less effort.

—A food that can be served every day and in so many ways that its usefulness and welcome is without end. The food for vegetarians—a food that has replaced meat in many homes.

Makes meal preparation a pleasure. No more guessing what to have—what to get that this one will like and at the same time please the others.

Food you're sure of. Wholesome, fresh and pure—in sealed packages only—not forgetting food cost cut in two.

Only five and ten cents a package at all grocers. Write for free recipe book.

daughter, Miss Beulah Craig, was united in marriage to J. Matt McFerrin, of Paducah, Ky., the Rev. A. P. McFerrin, of Opelika, Ala., father of the groom, officiating. The "wilderness" never looked brighter than it did on this occasion in its decorations of autumn flowers and vines. The wedding was a quiet affair, only the immediate relatives and friends being present, the only visiting guest being Mr. Matt Walliams, of Nashville, uncle of the groom. The bride was attired in a handsome going-away gown of autumn green with hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The bridal party drove to Columbia and the bride and groom left for a southern wedding trip. Miss Craig is one of the most attractive and popular young ladies in the county and is of an old southern family. Mr. and Mrs. McFerrin will be at home in Paducah after their wedding trip is completed.

Mrs. Charles De Werthen captured the lone hand prize, a pretty brooch. A prettily appointed course luncheon was served after the game. Only the club members were present.

DRASTIC STEPS MAY BE TAKEN

SHOULD IT BE REGARDED NECESSARY TO RETALIATE.

Exclusion of Imports May Be Resorted to if American Goods are Taxed at Maximum

BY ANY OF THE OTHER NATIONS.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—Drastic measures, including the exclusion of imports from any country unjustly discriminating against this country, might be found necessary by the president in the event it should be regarded necessary to adopt retaliatory tariff measures against France.

With no official information of the intention of France to operate her maximum tariff against this country upon the termination of October 31 of the commercial agreement, officials admit that there is danger of the two countries, for a time at least, applying the maximum rates against each other.

The result to both countries will be extremely harmful. The tariff act empowers the president, in case American goods are unjustly discriminated against by any country, to absolutely prohibit the importance from that country of any article he sees fit to name.

Should the French maximum rate be applied to our exportations to that country canned meats will be increased 33 1-3 per cent, fresh table fruit 100 to 200 per cent, manufactured and prepared pork meats 100 per cent, lard 60 per cent, the whole list ranging from 50 to 200 per cent in increase.

Aldrich Quoted.

Paris, Oct. 21.—In a book just published favoring commercial expansion M. Crippel, former minister of commerce, quotes Senator Aldrich as saying that Taft's interpretation of "undue discrimination" did not mean that France must necessarily grant all her minimums, but only that the treatment of American products "must be reciprocally just and reasonable," and that naturally it was expected that France would give the United States the same treatment as other active competitors for French trade.

Crippel adds that Aldrich's conclusions are extremely welcome, but that France must first consider her own interests. He contends that the policy of negotiation is the commercial policy of the future and expresses regret that the United States in her "splendid isolation" snaps her fingers at the world.

Paducah, Ky., July 3, 1909.

Messrs. Hays & Miller Bros.: Gentlemen:—I am delighted to say to you that the sample bottle of Hays' Specific I used from you has done even more than you recommended or than I anticipated. I can truly and with confidence assure any one who uses it that it will not disappoint them in any case of Rheumatism or Torpid Liver. Further than this, I have not tried it, hence this deponent saith no further.

This July 3, 1909. Geo. W. Landrum, attorney at law and master commissioner of Livingston circuit court, Smithland, Ky.

WRIGHTS TO ASK AN INJUNCTION

THEY CLAIM SAFEMER'S MACHINE IS AN INFRINGEMENT.

Count to Be Asked to Not Only Enjoin Wrights, But to Order Destruction of Machines.

WOULD STOP OTHER FLIGHTS

New York, Oct. 21.—Willbur and Orville Wright mean to put a large and effective crimp in the plans of Ralph Saulnier, who bought a French flying machine, to go up in the air over at Ampere, N. J.

Through their attorneys the Wright brothers applied in the United States court there for an injunction, damages and the power to destroy the machine imported by Saulnier on the ground that in the construction of the French machine patents granted them had been violated. Saulnier's machine is a duplicate of the one in which M. Heriot crossed the English Channel.

In the papers the Wrights claim that the improvements originated by them have made the successful operation of heavier than air machines possible and that they were granted patents for their inventions in May, 1906.

Miscellaneous.

For a few needed repairs the Henry Harley tied up at the foot of Washington street this morning and consequently there was no Calro packet.

She is owned by the Hyman line of Nashville and has been plying the local trade since the Dick Fowler was taken out on account of low water. It is expected that the Harley will be ready to resume the trade

Monday. Tuesday night she struck a barge slightly damaging her.

The Ollie E. came in this morning and departed at noon for Dycsburg.

Either the City of Seattle or City of Savannah will be in late tonight or early tomorrow from St. Louis.

One of the boats left there at 5 p. m. yesterday.

Capt W. H. Massey, of St. Louis, recently took his launch, Banko, drawing five feet of water, from St. Louis to Memphis without touching bottom at any point. He had not previously posted up on the changes in the channel, it being his first trip down the river this year.

The Kentucky will arrive early tonight from the Tennessee, proceed to Metropolis and return tomorrow. She departs Saturday at 6 p. m.

The St. Louis Republic says Pilots Steve Greenwell and Natling Smith

allied at the rooms of the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers Pilots' society Tuesday and announced themselves posted on the channel south and open for departments in the presidential flotilla to depart October 25. All pilots who will make the trip will have a meeting Saturday at 10 a. m. at the office of J. J. Dunn, supervising inspector of steamboats there.

Etiquette as strict as that of the U. S. Navy will be observed by the boats on the journey of President Taft and his escort down the Mississippi to New Orleans, and will be to the master or pilot who ignores regulations. Special rules governing the trip have been adopted and must be adhered to. Positions in the parade will be assigned by card and must always be maintained. The President, flying the president's flag, will lead the procession.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of Monday says: The new bell buoy installed by Lieutenant Commander M. L. Miller, United States navy, inspector of the Fifteenth light-house district, at the Chain of Rocks, is an original design by Lieut. Miller and the first of its kind to be installed. It is also the only bell buoy in these waters. Last year a bell buoy operated by a water wheel was installed and operated successfully, but the new buoy has been pronounced much more efficient. It is operated on the principle of a water kite. The current strikes the lower end of the buoy and raises the top above the water. The bell is placed on a horizontal at the top of the buoy. A tube containing a ball is placed horizontally ally within the bell, allowing just enough space at each end for the ball to strike the bell. The action of the current against the buoy causes the ball to oscillate and ring.

The New Orleans Picayune of Monday says: The Monongahela River disembarked Coal and Coke company's tugboat Pacific No. 2 arrived yesterday at Coalport landing with one coal dumper twelve empty coal boats and the tugboat Pennies the dagger having been sent here by the company to recover some of the coal sunk in the harbor here during the recent hurricane, and the boats to be used in receiving the black diamonds.

The Pennies, which it will be remembered founded at Natchez during the terrible storm, and was later raised has been brought here to be docked.

The New Orleans Times-Democrat of Monday says: Capt. Henry J. Leyle, traffic manager of the Eagle Packet company of St. Louis, is in the city. He is arranging details for the entertainment of several hundred which, low boats, the Alton and two "Rags" will bring here on the presidential trip down the river.

S.S.S. BEST TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

There is no way to cure Catarrh except to purify the blood, and thus do away with the cause. The symptoms may be benefited by the use of washes, inhalations, sprays, medicated tobacco, etc., and through the use of such treatment catarrh suffers only temporary relief and comfort. External and local measures however cannot have any effect on the blood, and therefore their use alone is of no real curative value. Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, and comes as the result of catarrhal matter and other impurities in the circulation. These morbid matters in the blood cause an inflammatory and irritated condition of the mucous membrane, producing in the ears, stuffy feeling in the head and nose, headaches, hoarseness, bronchial affections, watery eyes, etc. S.S.S. is the best treatment for Catarrh because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. This medicine removes every particle of the catarrhal impurity from the circulation, making this vital fluid pure, fresh and healthy. Then the inflamed membrane begins to heal, because they are nourished with pure, health-giving blood. Every symptom disappears, and soon S.S.S. produces a perfect cure. S.S.S. does not contain any habit-forming drugs, which really never can cure Catarrh, but only ruin the health. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

MRS. PARKHURST NOW IN AMERICA

WILL ASSIST IN EQUAL SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN.

Has Been in Prison and Wears Medal for Her Suffering for the Cause— Says England

IS AHEAD OF U. S. IN MATTER

New York, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Emmeline Gould Parkhurst, leader of the English suffragettes, arrived last night to assist in the equal suffrage campaign in America. "I think we can run away ahead of you in this matter," she said to the reporters.
 She explained that the medallion she wore was worn by English women who had been imprisoned for the cause. "I suffered solitary confinement," she continued, and "had one hour of exercise out of the twenty-four. The balance of the time I was confined in a cell 8 by 10 feet."

"We have pledges from practically two-thirds of the members of parliament to vote for us as soon as the bill is prepared by the government. We expect sooner or later to compel the government to introduce the bill."
 "All great movements have been worked out by violence. The American people seemed their liberty by violence, so why not rush the house of commons to obtain our rights?"
 Mrs. Parkhurst is the founder of the Woman's Union, the avowed object of which is to force the British government to grant equal suffrage to women.

Her clashes with the police cost her fourteen weeks in prison last year. She has appealed against another sentence imposed in June for storming the house of commons in an endeavor to confront the prime minister, who declined to receive the suffragettes.

The "pure food law" is designed by the government to protect the public from injurious ingredients in food and drugs. It is beneficial both to the public and to the conscientious manufacturer. Ely's Cream Balm, a successful remedy for cold in the head, nasal catarrh, hay fever, etc., containing no injurious drugs, meets fully the requirements of the new law, and that fact is prominently stated on every package. It contains none of the injurious drugs which are required by the law to be mentioned on the label. Hence you can use it safely.

Little Boy's Curiosity.
 Little Davey was forever asking questions, says the San Francisco Star.
 "You'd better keep still or something will happen to you," his tired mother finally told him one night. "Curiously once killed a cat, you know."
 Davey was so impressed with this he kept silent for three minutes. Then:
 "Say, mother, what was it the cat wanted to know?"

She Was Pleasantly Surprised.
 Miss H. E. Bell, Wausau, Wis., writes: "Before I commenced to take Foley's Kidney Pills I had severe pains in my back, could not sleep and was greatly troubled with headache. The first few doses of Foley's Kidney Pills gave me relief, and two bottles cured me. The quick results surprised me and I can honestly recommend them. Gilbert's Drug store."

A COUNTRY OF BIG PALACES
 Daily Hns Tell by the Mile, With All Sorts of Romances Attached.

In Rome alone are sixty private palaces bigger than the New York City Hall or the White House in Washington, and many of less rank. The Cornaro palace in Venice is 97 feet wide and 104 feet high. In Florence the Pitti palace is longer and broader than the New York Life Building and was 400 years getting completed, and the Strozzi palace is nearly as large as the Hall of Records. Genoa the Haughty has a street of palaces, not to speak of the Doria pile at the water's edge, where Verdi long lived. A medieval Italian palace was a village and fortress combined. Blacksmiths, armorers and soldiers dwelt below, wine from the family estate was sold in a shop at the corner and the family lived on the "noble floor," the third or we reckon it, or sometimes the second. Such vast buildings are useless now except for hotels or tenements.
 Zola in his "Rome" tells how Italians have always ruined themselves by their passion for building solid structures that last forever, from the Coliseum to the Victor Emmanuel monument. The Marquis Odescalchi tolled years on his mansion on Lake Como, dressed like a mason, living on the "works." Such zeal makes palaces plenty. The Brownings on $1,500 a year lived in a Florentine palace, the Ensa Galdi. Mark Twain had one floor of an unburnable Florentine pile much later. Byron moved his horses, dogs, cocks, coaches, nursery, monkeys, game-cocks and library, and the golden-haired Countess Guiccioli, from one Italian palace to another in different cities. Don Carlos had a palace on the Grand Canal in Venice.—New York World.

WOMEN GOING LIVELY PACE.

Their Part in Industrial World of Momentous Bearing on Future.

"If your phone was made a dozen years ago," says a booklet recently issued by the Woman's Trade Union League, "the work was done by men; but if it's of recent date much of it was made by women, for women are more and more being employed to put together electrical fixtures." The reason is quoted from a factory foreman: "The girls receive 40 per cent less wages than a man would get, and since they are quicker, they do 25 per cent more work." This is a body blow for the lords of creation. It is meat for the league, which expects to change some day that clause suggesting sex in wages.

We read that of 600,000 textile workers in America 60 per cent are women and children. Also that where Hannah Borden ran one loom in 1817 one girl runs now six, ten, twenty or twenty-four looms. There is mention of sewing machines which do 2,200 stitches a minute. If a thread breaks, or the point of a needle, a shirt or a petticoat is ruined. So the point of that needle must be watched ten, twelve, fourteen hours by eyes that must not lift no matter how tired.—New York World.

C. H. Kluge, the Jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." Gilbert's drug store.

What Woman Is.
 A young and precocious poet of the south, on being asked to contribute to a lady's album, has, according to a Paris contemporary, given the following as an answer to the question, "What is a woman?": To a painter, a model; to a doctor, a subject; to a farmer, a housewife; to an invalid, a nurse; to one without occupation, a plaything; to a Parisian, a dowry; to a naturalist, a female; to a Huron, a beast of burden; to a Roman, a woman of the world; to a college don, an angel; to a poet, a flower, and to a Christian, a companion.—London Globe.

 "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all kinds of female troubles, and I feel that I can never praise it enough."—Mrs. Lizzie HOLLAND, Noah, Ky.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain.

HARAHAN ADOPTS GRANDDAUGHTER

CHIEF BESTOWS NAME ON THEODORA SHIRLEY.

Follows the Influence of His Daughter in St. Louis From Theodora's Father.

HUSBAND CAME TO LOUISVILLE

Chicago, Oct. 21.—James T. Harahan, president of the Illinois Central Railroad company and director of many other corporations, bestowed the name of Harahan on his granddaughter, Theodora Shirley, 16 years old, who has made her home with him for the past eight years. The action followed a petition filed by the railroad chief in the circuit court.
 Theodora Harahan, as the girl is now known, is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Nicol, at present in St. Louis, whose first husband was J. H. Shirley, one time stock claim agent for the Illinois Central railroad.

Miss Mary Harahan married Shirley early in 1893, and on October 7 of the same year Theodora was born. Marital difficulties developed early in the life of the Shirley and in 1901 Mrs. Shirley applied for a divorce on the grounds of "extreme and repeated cruelty."

Shirley, who, when he became Mr. Harahan's son-in-law, was stock claim agent for the road, appeared in court prepared for a bitter legal battle. Finally, the defense of Shirley broke down and the decree was granted. It was at this time that Theodora was placed in the guardianship of her grandfather.

After the trial, Shirley went to Louisville and entered the stone contracting business. Mrs. Shirley later became the wife of Alex. Nicol, traffic manager for the Rosenbaum Grain company of St. Louis. He died two years ago and Mrs. Nicol now lives with her sister, Mrs. A. N. Dale, secretary of the Madison Coal company, of St. Louis.
 Meanwhile Theodora has been living in Chicago, quite as a daughter of Harahan. She is very fond of her grandfather. Mr. Harahan is as fond of her. The petition was prepared with the consent of Mrs. Nicol. In the petition Mr. Harahan tells the early history of the girl and avers that it is the wish of all concerned that the girl assume the name of Harahan.

Both Boys Saved.
 Louis Boon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey of Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey of Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in results. Gilbert's drug store.

No Bars to This Zoo.
 Hagenbeck's Natural Zoo, at "The White City," Shepherd's Bush, London, exhibits an enlightened degree of animal captivity. No cages or bars of any sort are used, and the beasts can ramble in comfort around their earthen apartments as if they were in their native wilds. The animals are rendered securely proof from spectators by a pit which they cannot clear; while the chasm and all the doors to the dens are secured from the front by dirt embankments, apparently casual features of the scenery. This method of exhibiting wild beasts was developed in Germany, and has been adopted in London. Collier's for July 10.

Foley's Honey of Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation of the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. Gilbert's drug store.
